Evidence of Identity Documents

An applicant is to provide documents of identity that add up to 100 points. These documents should be the same documents that will be provided to Australia Post Customer Service Officer as evidence of identity when the application is lodged.

Within the documents the applicant must be able to show their photo, date of birth, signature and current address. All the documents must be original documents. Certified copies will not be accepted.

The assessor must verify the applicant's identity and date of birth, signature and current address prior to commencing the assessment. Assessors must refuse to conduct an assessment where the applicant has failed to provide adequate proof of identity or age. The Assessor must record the applicant's identification details in their entirety on the CA1 Form and then hand the documents straight back to the applicant.
